

Transaction WireTRADESWeek 11

- PA trades H. Green (RB-Bengals) and H. Moore (WR-Lions) to NY for V. Dunbar (RB-Saints) and M. Duper (WR-Dolphins). Player performance incentives could net a 6th to 9th draft pick for PA or a 5th to 8th pick for NY.
- DS trades G. Clark (WR-Redskins) to LA for M. Sherrard (WR-49ers), a kicker to be named later, & possible cash incentives, based upon team and player performance.

Did you Know?...

- A lowly 6-8 record may win the Southern division.
- NY saw its almost certain playoff spot hopes dashed, by losing to winless DS and Coastal cellar dweller NJ. Combined records, 4-17.
- DS has nearly quadrupled its total runningback production the past two weeks. Total thru game ten was 20, new total is 75.
- On at least 4 occasions Nibs has started players who were either injured or no longer active in the NFL. RD lost each of those weeks.

MORE COACHING MISTAKES? IN EACH CASE, THE LISTED TEAM WON...

- MI started a kicker whose NFL team had an off week.
- PG only reported seven FFL starters.
- DS called in its line-up four hours late therefore, having to play with seven starters plus a kicker who had been dropped from the NFL the previous week.

QUARTERBACK WANTED!!!

- Through 12 games, MI has a total of 13 points from its quarterback, including negative output the last 5 games!

HOT STREAK....BUTLER - 5 straight wins.

FRIGID.....VIRGINIA - 6 straight loses.

During weeks 15-17, all teams will continue to submit weekly line-ups, whether or not in the playoffs!!!

All playoffs occur during weeks 15 and 16.

Total of fourteen regular season games. Seven at home, seven away.

Play each team in division twice. One at home, one away.

Play each non-division team once.

No team will begin the season with four straight home or away games.

Every team has at least two of its final five games at home, one of its last three.

Within each division, each team will have played an equal amount of intradivision games at any point during the season.

Special 'rivalry weeks' will be played throughout the season, during week 5 and the final three weeks (12-14) of head-to-head competition, when every league team will play within its own division.
