MARINO GONE FOR SEASON!

Star QB's injury deals serious blow to LA Riot!

Dan Marino, star quarterback for the undefeated LA Riot!, suffered a season-ending injury this week as he ruptured his Achilles tendon during a game in Cleveland. Marino had started in over 140 consecutive games.

Riot! backup QB Drew Bledsoe suffered a knee injury this week, and the 3rd LA QB, Jeff Hostetler, has had his bell rung several times during the season and watched from the bench as Vince Evans led a late charge for the Raiders.

Marino's injury did spell good news for the AS YET UN-NAMED Virginia team, who was on the phone within minutes to add Scott Mitchell, the new Dolphins starter. Virginia has spent nearly all of its $25 transaction deposit this year adding and dropping quarterbacks. All that money added up this week to an all-time league record low of -4 points from Craig Erickson.

Rumors that the re-sodded Cleveland turf (suspected culprit in the Marino injury) had recently been shipped in from a football stadium in Central PA were unconfirmed at presstime.

Fantasy Football Flyer has obtained this exclusive X-ray of Dan Marino's foot. As you can clearly see, any work Danny will be doing for several months will probably be pitching — filming his commercials for Isotoners. Of course, Isotoners also makes a pair of slippers. Officials from Isotoner would not comment on rumors that they plan to develop a pair of slippers specially formulated for Achilles support.

NEW RECORD LOW!

Week 6 Game Summaries

MIMuffdivers 32, Virginia 5

Miami maintains it's 3-game lead in the Southern Division with a solid trouncing of the hapless team that STILLDOESN'THAVEANAME!

The No-Namers set an historic low when QB Craig Erickson threw 4 interceptions, no TDs and no bonus yards (and an intentional grounding in the end zone for a touchback, just to liven things up on the day!)

Miami's RBs maintain the cumulative season point lead heading into this weekend's clash with the LA Riot!, the only other undefeated team in the league.

PN Penetrators 18, LA Riot! 51

The Riot! extended it's lead in the overall point race but was dealt a serious blow when QB Dan Marino went down for the season with an Achilles tear. Riot! WR Andre Reed added a solid 14-point performance Monday night to seal the deal.

Penetrators RB Thurman Thomas scored over half the team's points and was the only bright spot for Pennington as they suffer their fourth consecutive loss after opening the year 2-0.

NY Griffons 40, NJ Kings 36

In the closest contest of the week, the Griffons try to keep pace with the Riot! in the Coastal Division. TE Jackie Harris had a huge night for the Griffons with over 100 yards receiving in the first half alone.

The Kings managed a respectable 36 points despite losing the Steve Young - Jerry Rice combo to a vacation week.

PG Pachyderms 31, SC Bandits 15

The defending champion SC Bandits had their lowest-scoring week in the history of the franchise as the Pachyderms helped to tighten the race in the Central Division.

Pachyderm RBs Marcus Allen and Barry Word scored TDs and waiver-wire add WR Alexander (if loving you is wrong I don't want to be) Wright (apologies to Berman) pulled in a 68 yd TD in the Pachy's win.

Bandit owner Michael Cerenzia nearly saw his team shut out completely, but rookie kicker Jason Elam managed to push the total score into double digits.

PA Wildcats 36, BR Blowfish 27

The Wildcats managed to pick up a little revenge as they beat the Blowfish for the first time ever and pulled within one game of the Fish in the Central Division.

The Wildcats were powered by a career day from WR Mike Sherrard, who hauled in two TDs en route to a 20-point week.

The Central Division was the only division race to tighten up in the first rivalry week. The other two divisions saw each of their top 2 teams win.

RD Raptors 52, DS Armadillos 35

Dallas scored it's highest point total of the year so far, but Richmond scored it's second-highest behind a big night from QB John Elway. The Raptors try to keep pace with the Muffdivers in the Southern Division. Raptors owner Chris Lieberman has publicly announced he will sweeten any trade deal that Miami offers any other team down the stretch.

TRANSACTIONS:

WEEK 6 TRANSACTIONS:

I Pennington Penetrators drop Stan Humphries, QB, Lightning Bolts, and add Jim McMahon, QB, Minnesota Vikings.

DID YOU KNOW, and I bet you didn't, that this is Pennington's (formerly Princeton) 12th quarterback in the history of the franchise (that's a little less than 1 and half years, folks). THAT means a quarterback changes in Pennington, on the average, less than every two games.

AND I BET YOU ALSO DIDN'T KNOW, that Dallas, Pittsburgh and New York have only had 3 QBs on each of their rosters during the same time frame.

I New York Griffons drop Darren Lewis, RB, da Bears; add David Klingler, QB from the only winless team in the NFL.

I Miami drops John Kasay, kicker extraordinaire, who actually never played a game for the Muffdivers; adds Lewis Tillman, RB-in-the-meantime while Rodney Hampton is recharging.

I Butler Blowfish drops Keith Cash, TE, Kansas City; adds Bubby Brister, QB, Eagles. (This is just a LITTLE perplexing considering Butler's geographic location is close enough to Pittsburgh that you think these owners might have seen a game back when Bubby TRIED to throw the ball for the Steelers. Hey, but enough editorial comments.) Bubby's real name, by the way, is WALTER.

I Butler Blowfish drops Robert Smith, rookie RB from the Norsemen, and adds David Treadwell, geriatric kicker from the Monsters of the Meadowlands (and they ain't the Jets!).

I Pennsylvania Pussycats drop Bernie "You mean he was benched for Vinny again?" Kosar (dropped like a lead balloon, I might add), and add (hey, I am adding) Qadry "This Missile" Ismael, Norsemen.

I Pennsylvania Wildcats drop Blair Thomas, RB, J-E-T-S- Jets!, add Derrick Lassic, RB, da Boys.

I Virginia STILL DOESN'T HAVE A TEAM NAME.

I Virginia puts Dr. Chris Miller, QB, Atlanta Falcons, on Injured Reserve, and adds Craig Erickson, QB, Tampa Blah. Actually, it would really be news if Chris Miller was on the active roster. Let's just keep him on IR indefinitely and report it if he actually CAN run 5 yards without tearing a medial collateral ligament.

NEWS FLASH - Fantasy Football Flyer has just learned (read - brainstorm) that MRI actually stands for "Miller, Reserve Injured" and not Magnetic Resonance Imaging. It's seems Miller has perfected the MRI!

I Los Angeles Riot! has placed Fred Barnett, WR, Iggles, on IR. The Riot! has added Courtney Hawkins, WR, Tampa Blah.

HAS ANYONE ELSE NOTICED that Miami Hurricane QBs, you know, the ones that win the Heismans, pretty much SUCK in the NFL. But at the rate Waugh is going, he'll get around to add Gino Toretta within six weeks.

TUNE IN NEXT WEEK to read all about the blockbuster trades that are still being tossed around at presstime.

AND FINALLY, DID YOU KNOW, that the New Jersey Kings have NEVER made an FFL trade. Yes, it is true. Says Zilber: "That's because no team ever wanted to give me what I wanted."

From the editor...

DEADBEAT UPDATE: Paul has paid! But there are still quite a few of us that still owe the extra $10.00 for the conference call. A quick rundown of financial standings: COASTAL DIVISION: All teams are paid in full!

CENTRAL DIVISION: SC owes another $25 transaction deposit; Butler owes the $10 plus another $25 transaction deposit; Pittsburgh owes the extra $10 (and has only $2 left on its transaction deposit); and I owe the extra $10 (and will probably use my last $4 in transaction money very soon!). SOUTHERN DIVISION: Dallas is paid in full! Richmond, Miami and Virginia ALL OWE the extra $10 in league fees AND ALL THREE ALSO OWE an additional $25 for another transaction deposit. The commish has told me he'll have an account balance summary for the newsletter in a week or two. That's all for now.
